Robert Watson

"Following a brief career in the law I travelled and worked in Europe spending time in northern Italy where I taught and visited some of its great gardens. On my return to NZ I studied landscape architecture as a post graduate student at Lincoln University.

This course included the history of Italian gardens for which I have a passion. I have since then returned to Italy on several occasions and visited more of its gardens for the sheer pleasure of being there and to better understand their place in the history of garden design.

I was delighted when Connectitalia-NZ asked me to lead its first Italian garden tour. I know Connectitalia-NZ tours are unlike most tours in that they are small, exclusive and unregimented and this appealed to me. Not only will we visit some stunning Italian gardens, we will enjoy a unique cultural experience along the way."

"I sincerely hope you will join us!"

VACANZE ITALIANE – Come with us!

Beniamino Petrosino

I am the founder of CONNECTITALIA-NZ. I came from Italy to live in New Zealand in the 1980's and have worked as a chef, restaurateur and consultant in the hospitality industry in New Zealand, Australia, Malaysia and the United States of America. I have taught Italian in schools and privately and also English to refugees. In 2003, Hazard Press published my novel "The Passage of the Frog and the Wild Strawberries of 1942" set in the Mezzogiorno regions of Italy where I grew up and it would give me great pleasure to introduce you to this magical land and its people. In late 2015 I met Anne Scragg when she became one of my Italian language students. In 2016 we ran a successful cultural programme in Christchurch showcasing many special Italian foods and wines and introducing our guests to delightful Italian locations off the beaten track. Now Anne and I take our guests to see the enchanting places we have talked about and ensure they have a cultural experience like no other. Our future plan is to secure a home in Italy so you will even be able to put down your luggage and forget about it!

Anne Scragg

I initially trained as a lawyer and worked in private practice in New Zealand for some years. I had a few years off work while my family was young and then returned to work as an adjudicator and mediator. Over time I became involved in designing and establishing specialist dispute resolution schemes in the public and private sectors. In 2015, I retired from a senior management role with the intention of doing something entirely different. One day my husband came in from the letterbox with one of Beniamino's business cards and I thought Italian language lessons might be just what I needed! I have been to Italy several times and have loved every visit. I am confident I know what non-Italians need and want when travelling and I want to share my passion for Italy with others. I also want to show our guests from other countries the treasures that my homeland, New Zealand, has to offer and would be delighted to work with you to plan your trip through the land of the Lord of the Rings.

TRAVELLING AROUND THE REGION OF LAZIO, NORTH AND SOUTH OF ROME

On Sunday 26 May, the tour group will meet in the late afternoon at a charming hotel in the heart of ancient Rome, where the group will stay for the first night. That night we will enjoy a traditional Roman dinner at a local restaurant and get to know the two tour escorts, Robert Watson, a renowned New Zealand landscape architect and Beniamino Petrosino, the founder of Connectitalia-

NZ Ltd. The following morning the group will be picked up by our driver and driven to the Tivoli area, close to Rome, where we will visit the impressive gardens of Villa d'Este and Hadrian's Villa.

Villa d'Este dates from the 16th Century and is located in Tivoli, close to Rome. Now a UNESCO World Heritage site, it is best known for its glorious Renaissance garden with its terraced hillside and stunning fountains. This garden is without doubt one of the most famous water gardens close to Rome and is a "must see" for us on our tour.

Hadrian's Villa is also a UNESCO World Heritage site located at the foot of the Tiburtine Hills in Tivoli. This sprawling archaeological site is one of the best-kept and most visited sites in Italy. The villa was constructed for the Emperor Hadrian between 118 and 138AD and comprises residential buildings, baths, nymphaeums, pavilions and gardens.

Our accommodation on 27 May and the following 2 nights will be in a luxurious hotel in the Frascati area. Frascati is one of several attractive historic hill-towns to the south-east of Rome known collectively as the Castelli Romani.

While in this part of Lazio, we will explore the area and may wish to sample a glass of famous Frascati white wine produced locally or maybe a Frascati Frizz aperitif. Grapes have been grown in this area since the 5th Century BC and Frascati wine is known as Rome's signature wine.

We'll visit the enchanting gardens of Ninfa (TBC) with its crumbling medieval walls providing a unique micro-climate for the many rare plants gathered from all parts of the world, Ninfa is a photographer's delight and is often described as "the perfect garden."

Torrecchia Vecchia is a charming English styled garden designed by the well-known landscape architect Dan Pearson. It has an amazing history, having initially been part of a large estate of a great Roman family of which Julius Caesar was a descendant.

When we leave our hotel for our journey north of Rome we will visit the gracious gardens at Castel Gandolfo on the way. These beautifully manicured gardens are located at the summer retreat of the Popes and have recently been opened to the public by Pope Francis. This is a delightful, peaceful place, overlooking Lake Albano.

Our destination for the night of 30 May and the next two nights will be Viterbo in northern Lazio, where we will stay for three nights in wonderful accommodation in the ancient town centre. Viterbo is surrounded by medieval walls built during the 11th and 12th centuries. It is located in a wide thermal area and is famed for its many spas and thermal baths.

Viterbo also lies in the heart of the ancient Etruscan region and many fascinating remnants of that civilization survive. It is close to picturesque villages such as Tarquinia and Tuscania full of Etruscan history, isolated hilltop villages such as Civita di Bagnoregio and the scenic crater lake Bolsena. We will have time to explore this region bursting with history while also visiting two of Italy's most famous gardens in the area.

Villa Lante at Bagnaia is a 16th Century Renaissance garden designed for Cardinal Gambara. The garden is perfectly proportioned and richly detailed. It uses the Palladian circle and square in its structure, with buildings serving as garden ornaments and outstanding fountains and water features throughout the garden.

Bomarzo, a village at the foot of Mount Cimino, is home to a unique and eccentric garden, Sacro Bosco designed by Prince Vicino Orsini and the renowned architect Pirro Ligorio. The park is embellished with giant stone sculptures of monsters, dragons, mythological beings and exotic animals along with temples, fountains and obelisks marked with strange symbols. This garden provides a unique experience to visitors and is one of four great gardens we visit that are members of the Grandi Giardini Italiani association.

It is going to be difficult to leave this enchanting area of Italy but sadly, on Sunday 2 June, we will depart for Rome, the end of the tour. We can take you to a central point in Rome or Rome International Airport depending on your onward travel plans
